Upcoming Public Meetings Related to the 2024 Bay Area Affordable Housing Bond

The Bay Area Housing Finance Authority (BAHFA) will conduct a series of public meetings that will determine whether a regional housing bond measure will go before Bay Area voters in the November 2024 election. The proposed bond would invest in the production and preservation of affordable housing throughout the Bay Area.

Leading up to the final decision, BAHFA's committees and boards will discuss and finalize the expenditure plan for BAHFA's share of any voter-approved bond. These public meetings will take place through spring and early summer of 2024, offering the public multiple opportunities to participate in major discussions and key decision points around the expenditure plan for BAHFA's 20 percent of bond revenue.

This document provides a timeline of when such discussions and decision milestones will take place. Meeting agendas, including the location and Zoom link, are posted prior to the meeting at <https://mtc.legistar.com/Calendar.aspx>.
