
Regional Advisory Working Group

2010-08-03 10:00:00.0

Joseph P. Bort MetroCenter Lawrence D. Dahms Auditorium 101 - 8th Street
Oakland, California

Plan Bay Area is the San Francisco Bay Area's long-range Regional Transportation Plan and Sustainable Communities Strategy. The Regional Advisory Working Group (RAWG) is comprised of local government staff as well as staff from county Congestion Management Agencies and transit agencies, plus representatives from interested stakeholder groups and any individuals interested in the development of Plan Bay Area. RAWG provides input to regional agency staff on work elements related to the update of Plan Bay Area and other key initiatives that feed into the Plan. Group discussion follows each staff presentation.

Convene Meeting

0. Regional agency staff will outline today's meeting agenda, recap comments from previous meeting, and highlight upcoming agenda items.

Presented by: Ted Droettboom, Joint Policy Committee

Economic Growth*

The Bay Area has a number of high value economic clusters, and continued economic growth is important to our region. However, recent national events will impact our regional economy and result in employment growth that is slower than previously expected.

1. Employment growth levels influence the regional housing target. Staff will lead a discussion of employment growth, how to think about this issue and how to appropriately support employment growth.

Presented by: Paul Fassinger, ABAG
