

Aimee Inglis

Associate Director | Tenants Together

Aimee Inglis was trained as a community organizer through the Midwest Academy’s Organizing program, and has worked professionally on starting and managing volunteer programs and developing education and outreach services for tenants’ rights. She has worked for housing justice for over six years, starting as a volunteer counselor on Tenants Together’s ‘Tenant Rights Hotline.’ As staff, her role at Tenants Together has evolved from developing its volunteer and tenant education programs to online organizing and communications to currently leading organizational development as Associate Director.

As California’s only statewide renters’ rights organization, Tenants Together works to improve the lives of California’s tenants through education, organizing and advocacy. Tenants Together seeks to galvanize a statewide movement for renters’ rights.

Supported by members and member organizations, Tenants Together works to empower renters to assert their rights and provide the tools to organize and advocate in their own communities. Working together, we build the power and political will to win economic justice.
