Executive Officer | Building Industry Association of the Bay Area

Bob Glover is the Executive Officer of the Building Industry Association of the Bay Area. As a past member of local city commissions, he has been part of the development process as both a public-sector and private-sector representative, experiencing firsthand the importance of the public process and the need for collaboration in local and regional planning.

Mr. Glover is currently serving as an elected Board Member of the Pleasant Hill Recreation and Park District. He was previously a member of the City of Pleasant Hill Redevelopment Advisory Committee and served as Board Chair of the City of Martinez Planning Commission. He graduated from the University of California at Davis with a degree in Communications.

The Building Industry Association of the Bay Area is a nonprofit membership association that advocates at the local, regional, and state levels in support of an adequate supply of quality homes for people of all income levels. BIA's 400-plus members are home builders, trade contractors, suppliers, and residential development industry professionals.

Headquartered in the Contra Costa Centre Transit Village in Walnut Creek, BIA|Bay Area's eight-member staff and consultant team is governed by a 25-member board of directors.
