

Dr. Jennifer Martinez, CASA Technical Committee

Executive Director | Faith in Action Bay Area

Dr. Jennifer Martinez currently leads Faith in Action Bay Area, a regional network of community and faith-based organizations. She has also been an organizer with the PICO National Network since 2001.

Dr. Martinez has a bachelor's degree from Stanford University and a master's degree and Ph.D. from the University of Nottingham in England. Her graduate research focused on social movement strategies in the struggle for housing and land rights in Venezuela and South Africa. In 2011, her Ph.D. won the British International Studies Association thesis of the year award.

She has several published works and, in addition to being a participant in faith-based movement-building, continues to write about the ways in which social movements transform people and places.

Faith in Action Bay Area is a regional network of community and faith-based organizations working to create innovative solutions to problems facing urban and suburban communities in San Mateo and San Francisco Counties. Faith in Action Bay Area has successfully worked to increase access to health care, improve public schools, make neighborhoods safer, build affordable housing, redevelop communities, and revitalize democracy.

The organization helps engage ordinary people in public life, building a strong legacy of leadership in local communities across the region, and is part of PICO, a national network of faith-based organizing groups. Faith in Action Bay Area is non-partisan, multi-faith, and multicultural.
