

Keith Carson, CASA Steering Committee

District 5 Supervisor | County of Alameda

Supervisor Keith Carson serves as a member of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, representing the Fifth District of Alameda County on a platform dedicated to inclusive and accessible government. The Fifth District includes the Albany, Berkeley, Emeryville, and Piedmont, as well as large portions of Oakland, namely the West Oakland, North Oakland, Rockridge, and Montclair neighborhoods, and portions of the Diamond, Bella Vista, and San Antonio districts.

Supervisor Carson works to bring together people who have a wealth of talent and creative resources to address such challenges as access to health care, ending poverty, homelessness, crime, improving business retention, and addressing the scarcity of jobs in our communities.

One of 58 counties in California, Alameda County is home to over 1.5 million people living in 14 incorporated cities as well as in six unincorporated communities and rural areas throughout its 813 square miles.

Alameda County enjoys a varied geography ranging from urban marinas, to rolling, open spaces, to hillside lakes and streams. Characterized by rich diversity and culture, Alameda County takes pride in being one of the most ethnically diverse regions in the Bay Area and the nation.

Alameda County provides essential community services including health care, social services, public protection, and general government programs. These are provided by more than 9,000 employees working in 21 different agencies and departments.
