

Lynn Hutchins, CASA Technical Committee

Attorney | Goldfarb Lipman LLP

Lynn Hutchins has 30 years of experience in community economic development, affordable housing, environmental law, and real estate finance. Ms. Hutchins represents developers and public agencies in the development, financing and management of low- and moderate-income housing and community development projects. Her experience includes all phases of the development process, including developer selection, formation of special-purpose entities, land use entitlements, acquisition and disposition of property, loan and equity investment closings, advice relating to hazardous materials, CEQA, NEPA and land use issues, and syndication of housing and community development projects.

Ms. Hutchins holds a bachelor’s degree from Stanford University and a juris doctorate from the University of California, Davis.

Goldfarb & Lipman LLP is a leading California law firm in the fields of real estate, municipal law, affordable housing, and economic development. The practice is focused on all aspects of real estate law including housing and economic development, real estate syndications, public finance, land use, fair housing, cooperatives, condominium and other subdivisions, leasing, financing, environmental law, related areas of tax, corporate, and employment law, and litigation.

Goldfarb & Lipman combines the expertise of a small boutique firm with a wide array of services often only available from larger firms.