

Tomiquia Moss, CASA Technical Committee

Executive Director and CEO | Hamilton Families

Tomiquia Moss joined Hamilton Families in February 2017 with more than 20 years of nonprofit leadership and management experience. Ms. Moss is locally and nationally recognized as a dynamic nonprofit leader with expertise in public policy and community planning. From 2014 to 2017, she served directly under the Mayors of both San Francisco and Oakland, and most recently as Chief of Staff for Oakland Mayor Libby Schaaf.

Previously, Ms. Moss was the Executive Director of the HOPE SF Initiative, a public housing and neighborhood revitalization effort with San Francisco Mayor Edwin Lee’s office. Prior to that, she was SPUR’s Community Planning Policy Director. Ms. Moss also was the founding Project Director of the San Francisco Community Justice Center of the Superior Court of California and served as director of the Community Organizing Department for the Tenderloin Neighborhood Development Corporation.

Ms. Moss has been a social worker and community activist working as an advocate for social justice and economic equality in many communities around the country. She holds a master’s degree in public administration from Golden Gate University.

Established in 1985, Hamilton Families is San Francisco’s leading service provider to homeless families, with carefully designed programs to prevent homelessness, provide shelter and stability, return families to permanent housing, and support the well-being of children experiencing homelessness.
